WINTER CONSTRUCTION PROMOTES FOR THE FUTURE

Atlanta (November 10, 2009) Winter Construction continues to solidify its growth plan for the coming years. Recent promotions put the infrastructure and people in place to reinforce the organization's position in a re-emerging construction market. Winter is pleased to announce the following promotions.

Paul Fenzl and Margaret Rauber have been promoted to Vice President. As Vice President, Paul is responsible for the K-12, Military and Government markets. In addition, Paul leads Winter's recruiting program. In Margaret's role as Vice President, she is responsible for the Higher Education, Hospitality and Retail markets. Additionally, Margaret leads Winter's training and development programs and Winter's sustainability focus group called WinterGREEN.

Lee Addo, Carrie Campbell and Mike Howard have been promoted to Senior Project Manager; Anne Goodson has been promoted to Project Manager and Karen Cheshire has been promoted to Assistant Project Manager.

About Winter Construction and Winter Environmental:

Founded in October 1978, Winter is a privately owned and operated Atlanta based general contracting company providing construction and environmental services to clients in the hospitality, retail, government, education, corporate/office, religious, healthcare, historic restoration, and multifamily markets throughout the Southeastern and Mid-Atlantic states.

Winter Construction has consistently been ranked in the Engineering News Record (ENR) Top 400 Contractors in the United States for more than 25 years. Winter Environmental has been continually recognized by ENR as one of the top 200 environmental firms in the United States.
